Workshop Presenter

Linda Reyes, MSW, Social Work, was trained in 1993 and was certified as a Trainer in 2005. In addition to the experience she gained conducting numerous classes for Spanish-speaking families in recovery, She supervised newly trained facilitators in implementing the program with a number of different target groups. She currently provides technical assistance to a number of organizations implementing the curriculum within English and Spanish-speaking communities.

THE PROGRAM

The Strengthening Multi-Ethnic Families and Communities: A Violence Prevention Parent Training Program is for parents with children between 3 and 18 years of age. It presents parenting information within a cultural framework and addresses parenting from a variety of perspectives:

*Cultural/Spiritual Roots
Enhancing Relationships
Positive Discipline
Rites of Passage
Community Involvement*

Includes:

Developmental Information
Anger Management Skills &
Problem-Solving Skills

THE BENEFITS

*Enhanced parent awareness and Utilization of Community Resources
Built-in Program Evaluation Process*

TRANSLATIONS - PARENT MATERIALS:

*Arabic, Bengali, Braille, Croatian, Chinese,
Farsi, French, Gujerati, Hmong, Khmer,
Korean, Laotian, Polish, Punjabi,
Russian, Samoan, Somali, Spanish,
Turkish, Urdu, Vietnamese*

THE TRAINING

Instructors will experience the “facilitation process” (based on the belief that “true learning comes from within”), learn program concepts, and explore the impact of culture and values on how they were raised and on their own child rearing attitudes and behavior.
